Dear Mr. Meredith.

I wonder and doubt it, that you will get this letter and all the others, which you certainly should get, ~~from~~ of all the 5 continents. You are a real hero and I admire you so very much. You may not have many friends between the students... but who has many friends? But to have none is ever so much more difficult for you than for most people. How well I understand you!!!

I myself have been 5 years ago in Texas, to deliver lectures about Austria and I tried what I could to make people of different nations to understand each other.

Several times I spoke to colored people in their churches... it is my most valuable souvenir! and I got many many photos to remember them....

I know you are married Mr. Meredith! and I congratulate your wife to such a brave man!!!!

The little baby of my daughter gave me her nice favorite doll, to give it to a nice child! And so, if ever I should get your private address, I would love to send it to your child! not because it is valuable, but because I would be happy that your child should feel, that there is some thing in the world which is valuable and has nothing to do with hatred and prejudice.

I do wish you and your friends health and success, inspite of the shameful circumstances!

All the luck for you and your family

yours faithfully
